2012 PPGA Fall Classic Results

Norristown, PA - Mike Brown and Everett Farr made it three Fall Classic titles in the last four years with their 4-under par round of 66 at the Jeffersonville GC. Brown and Farr's winning margin of one shot over two teams, Matt Nastala and Kurt Holmes, and Sean Clifford and Dave Kimbley, was the closest of their three victories in the Championship.

The PPGA Fall Classic features three different six-hole formats. The first six holes is played as a two-man scramble, the middle six as better-ball of partners and the last six as select drive-alternate shot. Brown and Farr started fast in the easier of the three formats, the two-man scramble, with birdies on the first three holes and an eagle on the 564 yard par-5, sixth hole, to complete the first six holes in five-under par. The eventual champions made the turn in five-under par after starting the better-ball format with three straight pars. After consecutive bogies on holes ten and eleven, Brown and Farr knew it would take a strong finish in the demanding select-drive, alternate shot format if they were going to be able to capture the championship. The winning duo was able to complete the last format in 1-under par with five pars and a birdie on the par-4, sixteenth hole to cap their winning round.

Nastala and Holmes were the clubhouse leaders for an hour before Clifford and Kimbley tied their three under par score. Nastala and Holmes' round reached six-under par on two different occasions giving them a great chance for their first PPGA championship as a team. Their round started with three birdies and three pars in the scramble format. After starting the better-ball format with a par, Nastala and Holmes reeled off three straight birdies on holes eight, nine and ten to reach 6-under par for the championship. After a bogey on the 197-yard, par-3 twelfth, Nastala and Holmes quickly regained six-under with a birdie at the fourteenth. The round quickly came undone with a double bogey at the fifteenth followed by a bogey at the sixteenth and Nastala and Holmes would settle for a three-under par round.

Clifford and Kimbley got as low as 5-under during their round after consecutive birdies on holes ten and eleven. The co-runners-up would make consecutive bogies on fourteen and fifteen to drop them to three-under for the round. Clifford and Kimbley quickly answered with a birdie on sixteen to get back to four-under for the round. That was short lived, however, and Clifford and Kimbley bogied the difficult 436-yard, par-4, seventeenth. A par at the last secured the T-2 finish.

Tom Timby paired with 1989 Philadelphia Open Amateur champion, Matt O'Connell, now out of Mercer Oaks GC, to post a round of 2-under par, 68 and finish solo fourth. In a tie for fifth were the teams of Brian Fisher and Thomas Finn, and Scott McNeil and Brian Leljedal.

In the senior division, Bill Erskine and Mike Dutill, playing in the second group of the day, posted a round of 3-under par 67 to beat the runner-up team of Buck Jones and Jim Yenser by three shots. Erskine and Dutill made 3 birdies and an eagle against one bogey for their winning score. Ansley Jessup and Jay Davidson tied for third with Jeff Lysek and Kevin Davies at 71, four shots back of Erskine and Dutill.

Ken Gaskill and Malcolm Gealt, Ramblewood GC, bested Ken Hayman and Steve Owens, Sr. to capture the Super Senior Division. Gaskill and Gealt shot a round of 3-over par, 73 to beat Hayman and Owens by two shots. George Griffin and Jack Donnelly finished third, three shots behind the winners.
