

14th Hole at Cobbs Creek GC

2012 PPGA Middle Amateur Championship Results

Limerick, PA - Dave Kimbley set the PPGA Mid-Am scoring record with a 7-under par 65 at Turtle Creek GC to claim his first individual PPGA title. Kimbley teamed with Roger Stone to win both the 2008 and 2011 PPGA Better-Ball Championships and was also the medalist in match play qualifying in 2011.

Kimbley posted eight birdies in his tournament winning round against one bogey. Kimbley started fast with a birdie at the first but quickly gave that shot back with his lone bogey of the day on the third. After a par at the fourth, the eventual champion caught fire with four birdies in a row to turn in 32. After a birdie at the twelfth, Kimbley didn't know it but he was now tied for the lead with Lance Oberparleiter who had posted a round of 67 earlier in the day. Sensing that he needed a strong finish, Kimbley birdied the 377-yard, par 4, sixteenth to grab the outright lead and put an exclamation point on his round with his eighth birdie of the day on the 553 yard, par-5 finishing hole.

Lance Oberparleiter had the clubhouse lead for over two hours before Kimbley posted his winning score. Oberparleiter, the 2006 Philadelphia Open Amateur Champion, started his round with three consecutive birdies to quickly get to 3-under. Like Kimbley, Oberparleiter also made eight birdies on the day, but the runner-up would also make three bogies. Oberparleiter was at 1-under for the round after twelve holes but rattled off three straight birdies on thirteen, fourteen and fifteen. After a par at sixteen, Oberparleiter posted a birdie at the difficult 405- yard, par 4, seventeenth to get to 5-under which is where he would finish.

Mike Carr and Brian Degnan both posted rounds of 2-under par, 70 to finish tied for third. In a four-way tie for fifth place were Rick Umani, Tim Anderson, Patrick Phillips and Jim Braunsberg. Mike Brown and Dave Shields rounded out the top ten with rounds of even par.

Damian Anzaldo of Kennett Square CC, won the net division of the Mid-Am Championship. Adam Haltemen was second and Rick Ames third.
