

14th Hole at Cobbs Creek GC

32nd Philadelphia Open Amateur Championship Results

Philadelphia, PA - Jason Loehrs' 1-under par 71 in the second round was the the only under par round of the tournament and was good enough to propel him into the lead, a lead which he would never relinquish. The conditions at the Cobbs Creek Golf Club were difficult all week and Loehrs was able to fight off all challengers and outlast a field of 80 golfers in winning his second Philadelphia Open Amateur Championship on his home course. With his second title, Loehrs, also the 2000 champion, becomes the 5th multiple winner of this championship joining such accomplished Philadelphia area players as Chris Fieger (1981, 1992, 2001, 2004), Gary Hardin (1973, 1974), Mike Owsik (1984, 1993, 1999) Noel Caruso (1979, 1982, 1983) and Robert Housen (1975, 1976, 1977).

Philadelphia Publinks Player of the year Ken Gaskill, from Ramblewood GC, finished second, 2 shots behind Loehrs. Gaskill, the only player in the field to shoot in the 70's all four rounds and the second round co-leader with Loehrs, put together a late charge capped by birdies on the 71st and 72nd holes. But it wasn't enough to catch Loehrs who built an insurmountable lead by going out in 1-over par 38 on the demanding front nine.

Frank Rapone, from Springhaven CC and the 2003 3rd place finisher, was close to capturing his first championship and again finished third. Defending champion Anthony Saltarelli, from John F. Byrne GC, struggled in the final round to finish tied for fourth in a valiant title defense. Tied with Saltarelli for fourth with was Mark Czerniakowski form Pinecrest GC.
