2010 PPGA Better-Ball Championship Results

Limerick, PA - Brian Fisher, Jeffersonville GC, and Jeff Nocella claimed their first ever PPGA title on Monday and bested a field of 57 teams with a bogey-free round of 5-under par 67. The conditions were ripe for scoring as the wind was down and the course was there for the taking. Fisher and Nocella started fast with birdies on the 528 yard par-5 and followed three holes later with back-to-back birdies on holes five and six. The pair posted 3-under on the front-nine before again posting back-to-back birdies, this time on holes twelve and thirteen. In the end that proved to be all the winning duo needed as they finished with five consecutive pars to claim the victory.

There was a five-way tie for second, one shot back of Fisher and Nocella, at 68. Among the group at 4-under par were 2008 champions Roger Stone, Downingtown CC and David Kimbley, Spring Hollow GC. The former champions had lots of opportunities to go low but had trouble cashing in. A bogey at the 424-yard, par-4 17th ended their chances for a second title in three years.

Also at 68 were Brian and Mike Creghan. Brian, a senior at Guilford, is coming off an All-American performance last week at Hershey Golf Links in the NCAA Division III National Championships with a T-10 finish. The co-runners-up, playing alongside Fisher and Nocella, started the round with two bogies on holes one and two but answered with two birdies, then an eagle at the par-5 eighth to turn in 2-under. After a bogey at the 203-yard uphill par-3 11th, back-to-back birdies at 13 and 14 and another on 16 got them to within one of the winners but that was as close as they would get.

David Aglira and Rich Godshall, also playing in their first PPGA event, started fast and looked as if they would be the ones to catch Fisher and Nocella. The Chester Valley GC pair, playing in the afternoon, posted five birdies against one bogey on the outward nine to turn in 4-under. After slipping back to 3-under with a bogey at the short 283-yard, par-4 10th, the duo birdied the par-5 13th to get back in contention. A string of five straight pars to end the round left Aglira and Godshall one stroke back.

Bill Serody and Keith Evans from John F. Byrne GC were also part of the log jam, one stroke back at 68, as were Matt Foust and Ryan Pfeifer from Bensalem GC. Serody and Evans birdied the first three holes and five in total but a bogey at the 197-yard, par-3 9th left them one shy of the winners.

Defending Champions Buck Jones of Blue Bell CC and Jim Yenser, Honeybrook GC struggled in their title defense. The defenders couldn't get it going on this day as they ended the day with a score of 1-over par 73 and a T-19 finish.

This year was also the first time for the Senior Division in the PPGA Better-Ball Championship. The winning duo, Naz Gagliardi and Jack Donnelly from Bensalem turned in 1-under par 35 but birdied four of the next five holes to get to 5-under. Pars from fifteen through eighteen meant a score of 67 which proved to be just enough. Gagliardi has been in the winner's circle before capturing the Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Championship in 2007.

One shot behind Gagliardi and Donnelly were Rick Umani and Jeff Lysek. The runners-up birdied four of the first six holes but could manage only pars from there to finish at 68. Umani will be making a return trip this summer to the Senior British Amateur Championship by virtue of his T-6 finish at that event last year.

Solo third at 69 was 2008 Philadelphia Open Amateur champion Tony Carroll teamed with Bob Fritz of Kimberton GC. Jerry Haas, Cobbs Creek GC and Bill Horan, Middletown GC finished fourth with a score of 2-under par 70.
