2010 PPGA Senior Championship Results

Limerick, PA - The gusty conditions at Turtle Creek GC made scoring difficult but Tony Carroll was able to conquer the course and claim his second PPGA major championship with an even par round of 72 to capture the PPGA Senior Open Amateur Championship. Carroll's other PPGA major was the Philadelphia Open Amateur Championship at Cobbs Creek GC in 2008.

Playing in the final group, Carroll didn't get off to the start he would have liked by going out in 39 which included a double bogey on the 198 yard par 3, ninth. But the champion was able to right the ship on the back nine by posting three birdies against zero bogeys for a back nine 3-under par 33. The victory helped Carroll secure runner-up in the Senior Player of the Year race and also Carroll also seeks to claim his second PPGA title of 2010 when he faces Naz Gagliardi in the finals of the PPGA Senior Match Play Championship later this month.

Finishing one shot behind Carroll and tying for runner-up was 2008 Senior Open Amateur Champion Bill Turner and Chris Hunger who was making his senior debut. Hunger was the clubhouse leader for almost two hours before Turner posted his 1-over par 73 in the second to last group. Hunger was even-par through eleven holes before posting a bogey on the 12th and a double bogey on the par-5 13th. A birdie on the par-4 16th got Hunger back to 2-over and when his twenty foot birdie putt dropped on the last he was the early clubhouse leader. Turner played solid golf all day making eight pars and one birdie on the front nine. Two three-putt bogeys on the back nine and no birdies equaled 73 for Turner and one shot out of the playoff in his quest for a second PPGA Senior Championship.

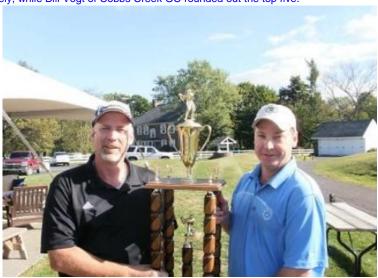

Playing in his first PPGA event, George Henninger of Huntingdon Valley CC, posted a round of 75 which placed him 4th in the 50-59 age group. Richard Timbrell of Plainfield West, in Northern New Jersey, rounded out the top five.

The 60-69 age group was decided on a three-way match of cards at a score of 74 between 2009 class champion, Tom Mallouk, 2007 PPGA Senior Open Amateur Champion, Naz Gagliardi and Bob Fritz. The defending champion prevailed on the match of cards based on his back nine score of 1-under par 35. Mallouk, playing in the second group of the day, started with bogeys on three of his first five holes before settling into the round and posting 11 straight pars before a birdie on the last for his round of 2-over par 74.

Gagliardi had perhaps the best chance to beat Carroll. Coming to the last 1-under for the round, Gagliardi found the water from 180 yards out on his third shot at the 553 yard, par-5 18th. After the penalty and an approach that found the green, Gagliardi three-putted for a triple bogey, two shots behind Carroll and a tie for the 60-69 age bracket. Fritz also had a chance at Carroll, but back-to-back bogeys at 16 and 17 ended his chances.

In the 70+ age bracket, Ron Hipple emerged victorious over Jack Donnelly with a round of 80. Hipple posted seven pars and two bogeys on the outward nine and held on the back nine to capture his first PPGA title. Donnelly battled a balky putter all day to finish one shot shy of Hipple. Nick DiFabio, 2008 70+ class champion, finished third.

In the net division, Kurt Choutka of Gilbertsville GC was the winner with Rick Ames finishing second. Bob Supplee and Bruce McCartney, both of Center Square GC finished third and fourth respectively, while Bill Vogt of Cobbs Creek GC rounded out the top five.
