2011 PPGA Senior Championship Results

Limerick, PA - Mike Owsik posted the only sub-par round of the day to capture his first Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Championship at Turtle Creek Golf Club. The victory marks the twelfth career PPGA victory for Owsik who has also won the Philadelphia Better-Ball Championship six times, the Philadelphia Open Amateur Championship four times to go along with a Publinks Championship crown in 1987 and a Publinks Better-Ball Championship in 1999. Earlier this month, Owsik was the medalist at Commonwealth National GC in the USGA Senior Amateur qualifier. The Senior championship at Kinloch GC in Manakin-Sabot, Virginia was the fifth USGA event for Owsik. With the victory, Owsik also clinched PPGA Senior Player of the year honors for the second consecutive year.

Owsik's round started with a par on the first and a bogey at the par-5 second. After three consecutive pars, Owsik caught fire and birdied three of his next four holes to reach 3-under par for the round through ten holes. After four consecutive pars, a bogey at the 146 yard, par-3, 15th dropped Owsik back to 2-under for the day. Two solid pars at 16 and 17 followed the bogey and Owsik's lead was two heading to the 553 yard par-5 home hole. A bogey on the last was good enough for Owsik to secure the championship and defeat both Mike Rose and Chris Hunger by a single stroke.

Playing alongside Owsik, Chris Hunger, the runner-up in this championship in 2010, turned in even par and two-shots behind the leader. An Owsik birdie on ten and Hunger's birdie at the 316 yard, par-4 12th would get him back to two shots behind. But Hunger hooked his tee-shot out-of-bounds on the par-5 thirteenth and would find himself four shots back with only five holes to go. Hunger quickly answered with birdies on 14 and 15 and combined with Owsik's bogey on 15, he was just one shot back. After a par at sixteen, Hunger bogied the difficult uphill, 405-yard, par-4 seventeenth and would have to settle for a second place finish again this year.

Dominic DiPrinzio posted a round of 76 to finish 3rd in the 50-59 age group and defending champion Tony Carroll posted a round of 77 which was good enough for T-4 in the 50-59 age group. Carroll also finished runner-up to Owsik in the Senior "Player of the Year" points race.

Playing in his first Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Championship, Mike Rose, Meadowlands CC, carded a round of even-par 72 to capture the 60-69 age group. Rose played a consistent round with sixteen pars against one birdie and one bogey. Rose birdied the 390-yard par-4 sixth to get into red numbers and would stay there most of the day until his lone bogey at the 377-yard, par 4, sixteenth.

Finishing one stroke behind Owsik in the 60-69 age group was 2005 and 2009 Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Champion Buck Jones. Unlike Rose, Jones' round was a little more up and down as he posted five birdies and six bogies for his 1-over par total of 73. One stroke behind Jones at 74 was three-time Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Champion, Ken Gaskill. Defending champion Tom Mallouk finished T-7 in the 60-69 age group.

James Sherratt, also playing in his first Philadelphia Senior Open Amateur Championship, captured the 70+ age group with an impressive round of 3-over par 75. Sherratt got to red figures quickly with a birdie at the 142 yard, par-3 third. After finishing the front-nine with bogies on three of his last four holes, the champion settled down on the back-nine with eight pars and a lone bogey for a four shot victory over Jack Donnelly, Bensalem CC. Defending 70+ champion Ron Hippel finished T-3 along with Nick DiFabio, Cobbs Creek GC.

Joseph Riccardi notched top honors in the Net Division of the Championship. James Sherratt was second and Tony Carroll was third.
